

6941 Shawnee Run Road,
Cincinnati, OH 45243
luebbbersma@gmail.com
(513) 523-1539 cell
www.mluebbbers.github.io

I am currently student at Brown University studying Computer Science and Music, focusing in Multimedia & Electronic Music Experimentation, with additional coursework in Linguistics and Visual Arts. I have spent the last two summers working as a full time teaching fellow at Breakthrough Cincinnati. I'm drawn to unexpected glitches, and simple, sleek interfaces for creating art.

Education

Brown University 2016-2017
Providence, RI

- Computer Science / Music double concentration
- BSIDE Magazine Editor
- Competitive Club Running

Cincinnati Country Day School 2012-2016
Cincinnati, OH

- 4.41 Cumulative GPA
- Cum Laude Society
- AP Scholar and National Merit Commended Scholar
- The Scroll Entertainment Editor
- Academic Team first-team all-league
- Varsity Track and Cross-Country captain

ID Tech 2014
Ann Arbor, MI

- 1-week intensive course
- Focus in modelling & animation in Autodesk Maya
- Culminating in a final project

Experience

Breakthrough Cincinnati 2015-2017
Cincinnati, OH

- Full-time, 8-week teaching fellowship
- 8th & 6th grade math
- Summer program for high-achieving middle-school students in under-served areas.
- "Family" Head in charge of 3 other fellows.

Brown University Computer Science 2017
Providence, RI

- Undergraduate TA position for CSC10150: Introduction to Computer Science and Object Oriented Programming
- Extensive grading responsibilities for coursework incorporating Java with the JavaFX library.
- Responsible for set up and teardown during 300+ student lectures