6941 Shawnee Run Road,
Cincinnati, OH 45243
luebbersma@gmail.com
(513) 523-1539 cell
www.mluebbers.github.io

I am currently student at Brown University studying Computer Science and Music, focusing in Multimedia & Electronic Music Experimentation, with additional coursework in Linguistics and Visual Arts. I have spent the last two summers working as a full time teaching fellow at Breakthrough Cincinnati. I'm drawn to unexpected glitches, and simple, sleek interfaces for creating art.

Education

Brown University   2016-2017
Providence, RI

- o Computer Science / Music double concentration
- o BSIDE Magazine Editor
- o Competitive Club Running

Cincinnati Country Day School   2012-2016
Cincinnati, OH

- o 4.41 Cumulative GPA
- o Cum Laude Society
- o AP Scholar and National Merit Commended Scholar
- o The Scroll Entertainment Editor
- o Academic Team first-team all-league
- o Varsity Track and Cross-Country captain

ID Tech   2014
Ann Arbor, MI

- o 1-week intensive course
- o Focus in modelling & animation in Autodesk Maya
- o Culminating in a final project

Experience

Breakthrough Cincinnati   2015-2017
Cincinnati, OH

- o Full-time, 8-week teaching fellowship
- o 8th & 6th grade math
- o Summer program for high-achieving middle-school students in under-served areas.
- o "Family" Head in charge of 3 other fellows.

Brown University Computer Science   2017
Providence, RI

- o Undergraduate TA position for CSCI0150: Introduction to Computer Science and Object Oriented Programming
- o Extensive grading responsibilities for coursework incorporating Java with the JavaFX library.
- o Responsible for set up and teardown during 300+ student lectures